AUTHOR OF THE MONTH

Agatha Christie

Agatha Christie (15 September 1890 – 12 January 1976) was an English writer of crime and romantic novels. She is best remembered for her detective stories including the two diverse characters of Miss Marple and Hercule Poirot. She is considered to be the best selling writer of all time. Only the Bible is known to have outstripped her collected sales of roughly four billion worldwide copies. Her works have been translated into more languages than any other individual writer.

Important works:

- Crooked House,
- Murder on the Orient Express,
- The Murder of Roger Ackroyd
- Death on the Nile
- The Murder at the Vicarage
- Partners in Crime
- The A.B.C. Murders
- The Mousetrap

“One of the luckiest things that can happen to you in life is to have a happy childhood. I had a very happy childhood. I had a home and a garden that I loved; a wise and patient Nanny; as father and mother two people who loved each other dearly and made a success of their marriage and of parenthood.”
